

Post Holder

Duration: 1 Day

Objectives

By the end of this course, delegates will demonstrate understanding of the following:

- Expectations and requirements of an Accountable Manager / Post Holder
- Regulations applicable to the Post Holder
- Format of the Post Holder Interview

Prerequisite

Candidates should have an understanding of their organization operational requirements and issues that are relevant to their areas of responsibility.

Course Content

This course provides delegates with the requirements and expectations of an Accountable Manager / Post Holder. Delegates will be introduced to the appropriate regulations that apply to the organization and will benefit from a greater understanding their responsibilities.

Target Audience

Any current or potential post holder that needs a thorough understanding of the responsibility of an Accountable Manager that will protect the company against any legal risks.